

<h2>Can you save the world</h2>
 Link to the Game	https://martin-jacob.itch.io/can-you-save-the-world
 Promoter	Friends Of Education (North Macedonia)
 Type of Game	Mobile online game - one player
 Target Age	6-13 years old
 Language(s)	English
 Prosocial Value(s)	Empathy Solidarity Positive communication Responsability
 Prosocial Skill(s)	Be empathetic Problem resolution Ask for help Help the other
 Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>□ Direct: demonstrate the importance of social distancing.</li> <li>□ Indirect: develop emotional intelligence</li> <li>□ Psychological, sociological, prosocial: Promote self-regulation and social distancing.</li> </ul>
 Description of the games	A game has been developed for children during the coronavirus pandemic which aims to demonstrate the importance of social distancing.
 Equipment	Device (smart mobile, tablet, laptop, computer) with Internet connection

Needed
 Description of The Activity	The game tasks players with dodging people they encounter as they walk along the street, while collecting face masks, food and even toilet roll to help them along the way. It is a family-friendly educational game to help face the Coronavirus pandemic. Players of all ages can become better at social distancing through playing !
 Timing	15 minutes
 Images or Other Documents

 Other Relevant Links
 Tips and Tricks	If you play this game in group it is more dynamic.
 Source	https://martin-jacob.myportfolio.com/